

CMB Meets to Discuss Examination Results

The College of Architecture and Engineering management board met on Wednesday, July 15, 2015 in deliberate on the college examination results. The discussion was of the final year results for the 2014/15 academic year for the school of Engineering, school of Built Environment, Arts design and nuclear sciences.

The participation of the CAE in the upcoming innovation week was also on the agenda.