

PREAMBLE

Sports and Games are integral parts of the University of Nairobi's programmes and curriculum. They not only offer entertainment, social skills but provide environment to improve leadership, inter-personal skills while also increasing self-confidence. Sports help students to better understand their own abilities, talents and career goals.